

THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN PKU SHENZHEN AND PEKING UNIVERSITY

In 2001, Peking University and the city of Shenzhen jointly established Peking University Shenzhen Graduate School — the only off-campus entity of Peking University.

PKU Shenzhen, as an important part of Peking University, upholds the academic tradition of “freedom of thought and inclusiveness”. Relying on Shenzhen’s innovative ecosystem and location advantages, we carry out high-level talent cultivation and cutting-edge scientific research. PKU Shenzhen adheres to an internationalized school-running path, has established cooperation with many top universities around the world, and provides students with a learning environment integrating diverse cultures. For the 2026-2027 admission year, we will continue to recruit outstanding international students globally, strengthen interdisciplinary training, and apply practice-oriented teaching models. With this, students can achieve dual breakthroughs in academics and careers in the development of the Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area. Students will be deeply integrated into Shenzhen’s science and technology innovation ecosystem, participate in industry collaboration projects, and international scientific research cooperation to expand their global horizons. Upon graduation, they will be awarded academic degrees from Peking University and join Peking University’s global alumni network.

The tuition fee standards for certain majors are still awaiting approval. There will be some adjustments compared with the previous academic year, but the range of adjustment will not be significant. You may refer to the tuition fee standards of the previous academic year for the time being.

In 2027, we will launch more English-taught programs on the basis of the ones listed in the above table. The existing programs will not be reduced, and English-taught programs in science and engineering disciplines will be launched one after another.

SCHOLARSHIP OVERVIEW
BRIEF ON CULTIVATION PROCESS
AND GRADUATION POLICIES

Scholarship Level	Scholarship Name	Students	Coverage
National level	Chinese Government Scholarship (Type B)	New and Current Students	Up to full/partial tuition waiver, for-free accommodation, monthly living expenses and medical insurance provided in accordance with the regulations.
Guangdong Provincial level	Guangdong Scholarship for International Students	Current Students	Master's students: RMB 20,000 per person; Doctoral students: RMB 30,000 per person.
Shenzhen Municipal level	Shenzhen Universiade International Scholarship Foundation	Current Students Only	Master's students: RMB 35,000 per person per year; Doctoral students: RMB 40,000 per person per year
School level	Tuition Scholarships	New and Current Students	100%, 50%, or 25% tuition waiver

Various scholarships, including School level Tuition Scholarships, cover more than 50% of international students at PKU Shenzhen. More scholarships will be established for the 2026-2027 academic year to provide greater financial support and security for international students coming to study in China.

Each international student is provided with a customized training plan. In addition to the cutting-edge and professional compulsory courses of the major, the public compulsory courses include distinctive subjects such as Basic Chinese and An Introduction to China, helping to transform you into a fashion insider with deep knowledge of the Chinese market. You can also voluntarily choose any elective courses in sports, languages, culture, art and other fields, as well as take or audit open courses from other majors and shared courses offered by other universities in Shenzhen.

Upon completing all the coursework and training components specified in the training plan within the prescribed study period, fulfilling the requirements of the degree thesis or practical achievements in accordance with the academic program, passing the thesis defense, and obtaining official approval from the university, students will be granted graduation and awarded a Graduation Certificate by Peking University. Those who pass the degree application review will be conferred a Master's or Doctoral Degree by Peking University.

Graduates of PKU Shenzhen will receive Peking University graduation and degree certificates that are indistinguishable from those conferred upon students at Peking University.
